

BARGAIN FEAST

Of Hot Weather Necessities

Will Begin Saturday, July 15th ^{and will} close Saturday July 29th

Everybody knows by this time that the prices on every kind of merchandise are advancing. Scarcely anything in piece goods or manufactured commodities in staple everyday merchandise that hasn't advanced at least 20 to 25 per cent., and won't get any cheaper as long as the fearful struggle in Europe lasts, and nothing indicates the cessation of hostilities in less than another year. This means that this big selling event may be your last opportunity to buy a wide range of staple every-day merchandise at LESS THAN MANUFACTURERS' COST on to-day's market.

Our buyer visited some of the big markets of the country to pick up specially priced seasonable merchandise that could be offered during these two weeks at a big saving to the trade. With four big stores through which to distribute this merchandise, there was no limit placed on the quantity. Good merchandise at the price influenced every purchaser. The savings we made in our purchases, you make in yours. Look carefully over the few items listed below and be on hand the first day and see hundreds and hundreds more that will appeal to the provident buyer.
